

Call for Papers and Registration

'The Future of Law and Economics' is a joint seminar, organized by Paris University, Maastricht University, Erasmus School of Law and the European Doctorate in Law and Economics

8th Joint Seminar 'The Future of Law and Economics' Erasmus University Rotterdam Wednesday 23 and Thursday 24 March 2016

The idea is that PhD students affiliated to one of the organizing universities (for EDLE: 3rd year PhDs) present a finished chapter in their research and that seniors from other faculties react to that. Could you please let us know whether you are willing to give a presentation or whether you could (if you already defended your thesis) act as a discussant? In case we receive more papers than can be discussed, we will make a selection. You will be timely informed about this.

Also the EDLEs from Bologna and Hamburg are invited to participate!

The workshop is open to all interested PhD students and researchers affiliated to the above mentioned universities and the EDLE.

Please take into account that the joint seminar will take two full days (and this year on Wednesday and Thursday).

Registration

Please let us know as soon as possible whether you will attend the conference by filling out the attached form. The joint seminar is free of charge. Travel and living expenses are at your own costs.

For those who would like to present a paper:

Please send the attached registration form with your (preliminary) title and an abstract of your paper or the full paper together with an abstract at the latest by 15 January 2016 by email to rile-sec@law.eur.nl. In your email please indicate how you are affiliated to the Joint Seminar.

Acceptance of proposals will be communicated by the end of January 2016.
